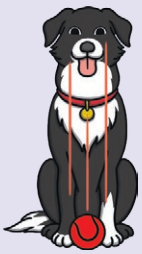
Grammar

This week, we have been revising the use of exclamation marks and practising when to use them in our own writing.

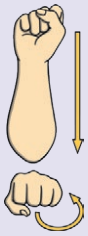
We know that a sentence can end in a full stop. We also know that when a sentence is a question, we use a question mark at the end. When we want to add feeling to our writing, we can use an exclamation mark. An exclamation mark is used to express a strong feeling, such as excitement, surprise, anger or joy.

Picture



Ben reminds us that sometimes we might want to use an exclamation mark to finish our sentence.

Action



Make a ball shape with your fist. Move your fist down quickly like a ball falling. Move it in a circular motion to make a dot.

Activity

Can you rewrite the sentence below, adding an exclamation mark to express a feeling of joy?

This is the best feeling ever.
